

Crystal Monk-Spearman BIO

Crystal Monk-Spearman is a native of Brooklyn, New York. She is the daughter of the Late Archbishop Anthony R. Monk, Sr. and Overseer Genester Monk, the founders of the Monk's Memorial Church and the National Fellowship Council of Churches, Inc.

She is a product of the New York Public School Systems attending; Pilgrim Christian Academy, Public School 21, Junior High School 308 & Martin Luther King High School. Maintaining the spirit of excellence from her matriarch & patriarch, Crystal is committed to being life-long student. She continued her education at the American International College, Springfield, MA. & the Kingsborough Community College, Brooklyn, NY where she sustained high grades which afforded her to graduate on the Dean's List. She met & married Alfred Spearman while in college & begin their family. From this union, Crystal is the proud mother of four children: Anthony Dalvin Onaji, Alfred Walter Jr., Crystopher Allen, & Alexander Jacob.

Crystal has been in ministry all of her life, working with her parents at the Monk's Memorial Church in Brooklyn, NY. She serves N.F.C.C. (National Fellowship Council of Churches, Inc.) as the Secretary General, National Comptroller, National Evangelist, & the Overseer of Generations of NFCC. She was favored by God to retire as Supervisor of Distribution Operations for the United States Post Office in 2016 & has been dedicated to Ministry full time. Having a desire to be more grounded & effective in ministry, she enrolled in Parsons Temple Theological Seminary, a satellite for International Theological Seminary of California where she has earned her Bachelors of Theology in 2019, Master of Theology in 2020, & Doctorate of Theology in 2021. She is currently enrolled at Camden County College for Business Administration & Management.

Following Crystal's retirement, she launched her own company called ARMS Entertainment & Management LLC. This company was designed to manage Christian recording Artists & help guide their careers. Her goals are to grow the company to range from Christian comedians, Christian hip-hop, & gospel choirs. Crystal wants to help artists from start to finish, covering the in's & outs that are expected to be accomplished on the business side as well as the performance side. Before her father died, He had this vision to create this music company & Crystal developed the passion for music enough to carry on his legacy. ARMS stands for every initial in her father's name.
